Chautauqua Chatter

More good news for Cameron! Miss Alice Grantham, whom everyone knows as last year's advance worker is to be your superintendent this year. Miss Grantham has many friends who will be glad to have her here and she will do much to make Cameron acquainted with Chautauqua aims and with the talent which the circuit presents this year.

Not only is there fun for the grown ups during Chautauqua week — there is heaps of fun for the younger ones too. Miss Gladys Grantham is an expert with children and she will meet them in the park every morning from nine until twelve o'clock for games, stories and a general good time.

Shades of Tom Mix and shadows of Hoot Gibson! Who are the folks in the "Ten Gallon" hats and the "leather goods"? O, they are not going to shoot up the town. They are the Massey Five, that happy family of ranch musicians who open Chautauqua with a variety of snappy music, classical old time and jazz. You'll like them every one from Dot, the very youngest, to Dad Massey, who specializes in old time "fiddlin'". But that is neglecting Mother Massey who goes along to see that all the buttons are on and the ties are straight.

"Josh Lee" is one of the most beloved names of the Southwest. You will be charmed with his dry humor, his more poetic moments and his way of turning suddenly to the more serious things of life. You'll never forget the things you hear in Mr. Lee's lecture, the first night of the Chautauqua.

Zoom! Zoom! What's coming down the street? That's the children's parade, and every child in town should be entered. You'll see your neighbor's daughter being a most delightful clown; perhaps you will not know that boy of yours when he gets dressed up like Chief Strongheart. There are to be prizes too, one for the prettiest costume, one for the funniest and one for the best Chautauqua advertisement. The parade starts from the park at 7:30 Thursday evening. After it is over and the prizes are awarded, there will be a ticket hunt for the children and a big time for everybody.

An afternoon of dramatic entertainment, both serious and otherwise is furnished Saturday by Miss Maurine Wallace and Everett Kemp. Miss Maurine is a vivacious young artist who will completely win you, and Everett Kemp is known to everyone for his monologues.

"Tommy" is a new laugh play, free from the stifling passion and amazing social problems of so much of modern drama. It is just a rollicking comedy, full of funny situations and clever lines. You can't help but enjoy yourself and you will go home from "Tommy" feeling that the world is right side up.

For the music lover the third day is a red letter day. Miss Betty Booth and her company give a full concert in the afternoon and a half hour concert in the evening. The company took all of 1927 for travel and study. Miss Booth, formerly of the Vienna Imperial Opera, has brought back some lovely costumes from Europe. Mr. Paul Clark, an outstanding violinist has been studying South American native music and he is using much of it in his work this summer. Mr. Hugo Brandt, well known Polish pianist and composer, who assists Miss Booth, has also been studying in Europe.

So often people are frightened by the mere mention of classical music; they are afraid they don't appreciate it. Anyone can love good music, well played, if they will allow themselves to listen. One well known Oklahoma music teacher said that what the musical programs alone this year had been worth to her students was greater than the entire guarantee of the Chautauqua.

A life of service, lived for the Indian people—such has been the life of Strongheart, chief of the Yankimas. Through his efforts many reforms in regard to Indian control have been accomplished. Among these is the realization of Indian citizenship in the United States. Chief Strongheart feel deeply the ideals and desires of his race. His lecture is fascinating and appeals to people of all ages.

Remember those rollicking two—Brown and Mendeley from the "O, Percy" company? They are with us again this year, peppier and happier

BUSINESS WOMEN IN MEETING TUESDAY

WAYSIDE INN SCENE OF GATHERING OF PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB

The Business and Professional Women's Club enjoyed one of the most delightful meetings of the season Tuesday evening at Wayside Inn. This was a real picnic outing, gathering on the beautiful camp grounds at seven-thirty, where Circle Two of the Methodist ladies served a most delightful plate consisting of fried chicken, potato salad, pickles, dressed eggs, perminto sandwiches, bread and butter sandwiches, ice tea, ice cream and cake, in abundance. At the conclusion of the meal the club gave a rising vote of thanks to Mesdames H. N. Tate, R. B. Rylander, W. P. McCall, Hugo Slaughter and the Tate twins, Misses Nettie Lee and Ellarva Tate who served the club.

Miss Terry Entertains

Miss Fannie Terry entertained with a party for her sister Miss Eloise Terry, bride-to-be of the week, at her home in Cameron Monday night from eight to ten o'clock.

The reception rooms of the Terry home were pretty in an array of magnolia and cape jasmine blossoms. The honoree was most attractive in a rose crepe dress. Miss Ruby Robinson presided over the guest book.

Numerous competitive games kept the guests engaged while victrola music added to the spirit of the occasion. Punch was served throughout the games.

Then with all lights extinguished save a spot light, the attention of those present was turned to the mantel where the light played softly on a wedding arch under which there stood a miniature bride and groom, then centered upon a container with the wedding announcement "Terry-Choate."

A miscellaneous shower of useful gifts was presented to the honoree. She very graciously responded with appreciation of this love gift from her friends.

The hostess served her party brick ice cream and cake in the pink and white shades, this theme being prominent in other appointments. Miss Ennis Turner had charge of the book "How to Feed Him," in which each girl wrote her favorite recipe.

CHRISTIAN REVIVAL MEETING IS CLOSED

SERVICES AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH PROVES VERY SUCCESSFUL

The revival meeting in progress for the past two weeks at the Christian Church closed Sunday evening June 11. One of the best services and largest crowds attended the last night. Many asked that the meeting continue a few days longer but owing to the pressing work of Evangelist L. O. Byerly it was impossible to do so.

Many good words could be said concerning the meeting and are being said by all who attended. Evangelist Byerly preached without fear or favor and spoke against sin of all kinds in the church and out. Several times during the services he drew fire and sent the folks home to think it over but the final conclusion of all was that we ought to find no fault with truth but get lined up.

Much of the good of the meeting is due to the work of the pastor of the church and wife, Wallace and Mrs. Jones. For many months they have labored slowly but surely and in this meeting the result has been manifested. Their worth not only in the religious circles but also in educational and civic circles is keenly appreciated by the folk of Cameron.

The bride was dressed in a creation of rose beige georgette, wearing a picture hat and carrying pink roses as her wedding bouquet. MARJORIE WEEMS IS KILLED IN ACCIDENT

TRAGIC ACCIDENT SATURDAY NIGHT TAKES ONE AND INJURES ANOTHER.

Virginia Weems, age 7, who was injured in an automobile accident in which her younger sister, Marjorie, was fatally hurt Saturday night, is doing nicely and the doctors say she will recover.

Little five year old Marjorie, who died in a few minutes after the accident, was conscious for a time and seeing the blood on her sister, Virginia, told her mother, "Take her on—I'm not hurt." But she fainted a moment later and died from internal injuries before she reached the hospital.

The tragic accident occurred about a mile west of Cameron on the Buckholts-Cameron road. The Weems car was turning to the left to return to town. A Studebaker car driven by Matyslik driving south on the road was unable to stop and struck the Weems Star touring car in the side, knocking it about 15 feet and overturning it.

Mr. Mayastik, who had three people in the car with him, stopped and rendered aid, although first reports were that a Chevrolet car had hit the Weems car and that the driver had not stopped. After doing all that he could, Mr. Mayastik carried the occupants of his car to their homes.

There were nine persons in the Star car with Owen Weems—his wife and two children, his sister, Mrs. L. B. Chambers of North Zulch, and her four children. Mr. Weems was cut some injuries, but none serious, and bruised and several others received.

Virginia Weems, who is in the hospital here has a crushed left hand, bruises and several scalp wounds.

Services for little Margie were held from the First Methodist church Monday afternoon at four o'clock, conducted by Rev. P. T. Ramsey.

Pall bearers were Vernon Roberts, Will Stafford, Joe Matula and Henry Drier.

Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery. Coleman-Eplen had charge of the services.

ED WESTBROOK FOR WEIGHER PRECINCT 7

RE-ELECTION SOUGHT BY POPULAR OFFICIAL IN PRECINCT 7

Ed Westbrook of Ben Arnold is a candidate for re-election to the office of public weigher for precinct 7, subject to action of the Democratic Primary election on July 28.

Mr. Westbrook is a candidate because of the solicitation of his many friends over the precinct. His announcement comes later than has been customary, but his decision is made after being widely solicited and because of his interest in the law to aid the weighers in giving better service to the farmers. He has contributed to this work to improve the law and this week is in Austin to attend the convention where matters pertaining to the work of public weighers are under discussion.

The precinct is composed of Marek, Burlington, Yarrellton, North Elm, Walkers Creek and Ben Arnold.

Mr. Westbrook is a prominent Democrat of that precinct and has been found active and influential in all the campaigns for better governments and Democratic principals. On account of the late date he may not be able to see all the voters but he asks that his friends over the precinct give him their vote and support and assures all that anything done for him will be greatly appreciated.

CONFIDENCE AND CONCEIT

Efficiency experts and practitioners in the art of super-selection lay stress on what is casually termed 'self-confidence.' To sell one's product or to sell one's self, they say, one must have confidence in one's products or in one's ability and talents.

But there is a wide difference between legitimate self-confidence and stupid conceit. The latter quality, unfortunately, is to be found in many persons, in many different walks of life, and when displayed to any noticeable degree at all, is insufferable. Beautiful women, that is, those who are naturally beautiful and do not have to depend upon ar-capable of producing morons as they are of producing intellectual giants. The most beautiful woman, of course, is that woman who, although quite lovely, seems unconscious of it. And the wisest man is he who realizes that mortal wisdom, and especially his own endowment of it, has many limitations.

Confidence is a quality of strength and ability; conceit is the attribute of the incurably silly.

FOR BETTER MAIL SERVICE

There are few public utilities more widely used in any given community of throughout the entire country than is the post-office. And there is none for the effective operation of which it is more necessary than it is in the case of our mail service that the individual should have some knowledge of how it is conducted.

Many people think the activity of the postoffice is confined to the collection and delivery of letters and postcards, with an occasional parcel thrown in for good measure. They would be surprised to learn how much of its attention is given over to other lines—to the insurance of mail matter, collect-on-delivery service, registry division, and money order and postal savings system.

Except that it should reach its destination as quickly as possible it is to many of us a matter of little concern as to what happens to a letter when it has been dropped into the nearest mail box. How many and what kind of operations are necessary by how many persons before this letter is finally delivered into the next county or across three continents, is a question to which we give very seldom even the slightest thought.

Some day an expert in such matters will calculate to a nicety how much in hours of work and money might be saved to the nation in the course of a year if the sender of a letter would be only a bit more careful in addressing it and putting his return address on the envelope. When we learn how much may be saved in this manner, we shall all be surprised beyond measure. Thirty million pieces of mail matter go to the dead letter office each year. If it were more widely known than it is, to what extent this adds to the cost of our mail service, every letter-writer in this country would see the necessity of taking more pains in addressing letters.

NOW HE FACES THE WORLD

The week following graduation frequently is a time of heart searching for many young people. Many a conscientious young man gazing upon the beautifully lettered diploma asks himself rather gloomily, "Now that I have it, what am I going to do with it?"

It may be, perhaps, something of a disappointment for the youthful bachelor of arts to find that the great world of business and of everyday affairs doesn't seem to realize that he has graduated and is ready to offer his services. A college professor in a recent commencement address said, "It is not a convincing or an edifying spectacle of a man who can display a college diploma and attach a degree to his name, gives the impression that he has no idea what to do with them."

The tendency to put dollar estimates upon everything is not quite the attitude held in former times with regard to an education, and is not necessarily right. Surely the state in contributing largely to the higher education of an individual has a right to expect him to render some worthy contribution to society in return. But the highest public services are not always those most amply rewarded in money.

For the most part the great scientific research work carried on by various departments of the government is in charge of highly trained men and women whose not meager. And for the love of this work many of these scientists persist in their endeavors through life hoping for no large monetary returns.

Educators, preachers, and many others who devote their lives to services they believe to be for the good of others, always have found their remuneration in money less than they might have hoped to achieve in other callings. And always the worthiest students have been those who sought culture for itself and regarded money as of secondary importance.

"MAN'S BEST FRIEND"

(Selected)

The best friend a man has in the world may turn against him and become his enemy. His son or daughter that he has reared with loving care may prove ungrateful. Those who are nearest and dearest to us, those whom we trust with our happiness and our good name may become traitors to their faith. The money that a man has he may lose. It flies away from him, perhaps, when he needs it most. A man's reputation may be sacrificed in a moment of ill-considered action. The people who are prone to fall on their knees to do us honor when success is with us may be the first to throw the stone of malice when failure settles its clouds upon our heads. The one absolutely unselfish friend that man can have in this selfish world, the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous is his dog. A man's dog stands by him in prosperity and poverty, in health and sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground where the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if only he may be near his master's side. He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer; he will lick the wounds and sores that come in encounter with the roughness of the world. He guards the sleep of his pauper master as if he were a prince. When all other friends desert he remains. When riches take wings and reputation falls to pieces, he is as constant in his love as the sun in its journey through the heavens.

"If misfortune drives the master forth an outcast in the world, friendless and homeless, the faithful dog asks no higher privilege than that of accompanying him, to guard against danger, to fight his enemies, and when the last scene of all comes, and death takes the master in its embrace, and his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by the graveside will the noble dog be found, his head between his paws, his eyes sad, but open in alert watchfulness, faithful and true even in death."

Miss Kathryn Atkinson returned to her home in Cameron Wednesday, after having completed the school year at Sherman, Texas, where she was enrolled in Austin College.

Miss Terry received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Baylor University two weeks ago, and since that time has been at home with her family in Cameron.

Chrysler, Dodge Officials Outline Future Policies

CHRYSLER ODGE 2345 34 34 34

Acquisition of Dodge Brothers, Inc., in the advantages of the consolidation awaiting approval of the stockholders will not affect the identity or products of either company, according to statements just released by officials of the two corporations. The products of the two manufacturers will continue without interruption.

Dodge Brothers will continue to be Dodge Brothers and Chrysler will be Chrysler says the statement, and the sales organizations will be unrelated except as they shall mutually share in the advantages of the consolidation. Their cars will continue to be produced and marketed independently. The statement continues:

"The widespread public interest in recent events affecting the Chrysler corporation and Dodge Brothers, Inc., deserves an authentic and official statement, and an assurance regarding the future of these two corporations.

"Each will benefit from the consummation of a plan which unites such tremendous resources in materials, manufacturing facilities, financial power and manufacturing genius.

"Both the public and the dealers may look forward to the greater benefits which the consolidation of such tremendous resources will produce, and the men identified with these businesses may be assured of a stable and definite future, inspired by the progressiveness which has been responsible for this uniting of two great companies."

"Made it by hollerin'" this is the way a fruit vendor explained his success to me. "You've got to holler if you want to do business. Now there was a new feller, tried sellin' blackberries, his dad was a gentleman and he kind of felt it was in him too, so he sneaked up alleys sayin' 'blackberries' kind of like a boy would when he's trying to imitate a girl in a soft voice, he thought it was more gentlemanly to do it that way and maybe it was, but he didn't sell any blackberries until he got to hollerin' 'blackberries' like the rest of us. You've got to holler your way through the world if you want to make anything you just bet."

Company

Records For Production Broken By Chevrolet

Detroit, Mich., June 11.—All previous production records in the six-year existence of the Chevrolet Motor Company were shattered here in May when the company turned out 140,700 units. The output for a single day also reached a new level on May 28 when 7075 finished cars and trucks rolled off the assembly lines.

These figures, released here today by W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager, lent substance to a growing feeling in automotive circles that Chevrolet would not only equal its 1927 volume of building and selling more cars than any other manufacturer in the world.

Production of Bigger and Better 1928 models to June 1 was 651,500 units, Mr. Knudsen stated. He pointed out that this figure includes production since the first of the year as well as 32,000 new cars built in December so that dealers in all parts of the country would have cars for immediate delivery when the new model was publicly announced on January 1.

Up to June 1 last year the company had built 513,000 new models. In 1926 326,000 units and in 1925 less than one-third the volume achieved during the corresponding period this year, according to Mr. Knudsen.

The output for the month just ended was 25,000 units in excess of the 115,000 cars and trucks built in May 1927, which until this year, had been the largest production month in the history of the company. In May 1926 the turn out was 74,000 units and in May of the previous year 52,000 units. The record set up last May was bettered by 2000 units during the past February. March in turn was 17,000 units ahead of February, and April with a volume of 135,800 cars and trucks exceeded the March performance by 2,000 units.

In view of the high May volume, and the schedule for June, Mr. Knudsen stated that by the middle of the year the number of new cars built would be well beyond the three-quarter million mark.

All production operations of the company have been running at capacity since early in the year, Mr. Knudsen said. He explained that the high May volume was made possible because several of the domestic plants have been expanded, and because a new assembly plant recently opened at Atlanta, Ga., to relieve the other fourteen domestic manufacturing operations got in its full month's production during May.

Another new plant of similar size to the one in Atlanta, recently announced for Kansas City to supply the territory immediately north and west of that city, with a capacity of 350 cars a day, will make possible even greater volume achievements in the future, Mr. Knudsen asserted.

"Month by month our sales organization is making increasingly heavy demands upon the production facilities of the company to provide cars for immediate delivery in the domestic market," Mr. Knudsen said. "More than 80 per cent of the May output was absorbed in the United States alone despite the fact that the number of units going into the export field was greater than ever before."

"We interpret this expansion in volume and sales to a growing public confidence in us and our product. This is our greatest asset, and to the public is due whatever credit may accrue from the new records now being established."

Mr. Knudsen stated that extraordinary achievements of his company may also be taken as a trade index of the country.

"The automobile is a sensitive barometer of business conditions in every territory where it is marketed in quantity," he said. "The fact that our sales have been consistently good in every area of the United States indicates the healthful purchasing power of the great mass of people. That means, of course, general distribution of present wealth and a satisfactory future outlook."

The ensemble work as well as the solo work of the members of Gilbert Jaffy's Orchestra go to make another delightful afternoon of really good music. Mr. Jaffy himself is a gifted violinist, and the other members of the orchestra are also accomplished musicians. The pianist, I am sure, you will remember from last season Miss Gayle Giles of the Giles Trio.

On the evening of the fourth day is a lecture which should be of interest to anyone and of special import to the business man—"The Value of Man" by Mr. H. L. Fogleman. Mr. Fogleman is noted for his research in business efficiency and his training of salesman.

It sure makes me mad to get a circular letter in a one and open envelope with a one and one-half cent stamp on it, marked 'Personal.' Won't these darn fool fellars who try to sell us stuff ever learn that the Civil War is over.

Dayton 5 Years Ahead in the Manufacture of Super Tires, Proven By Performance

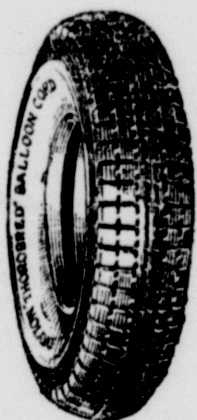

Qualified to promise the most!

And we are happy enough to do it—for there is nothing like selling a super tire for five years, and then having others decide to try and do the same thing.

But what could you expect? Thousands of motorists in the Southwest are sold on the idea of having a tire that is larger, heavier and with extra plies. More tire, more service. That's Dayton—and motorists know it.

Mileage Isn't All

Not by any means! Not when automobiles are being built for mile-a-minute speed and lives are being trusted to tires as never before. Mileage is important—but security from untimely puncture and blowout is vastly more so.

DAYTON Stabilized Balloons

are built to stand the strain of modern motoring—quick starting, fast traveling, sudden curves and corners, instant stopping with four-wheel brakes. And they are the longest running tires on earth.

Please remember that whenever Dayton can make a tire that will run forever, Dayton will do it, and Hicks will sell it.

For the present, Dayton is five years ahead in the super tire procession. You don't have to go on a bunch of promises—just look around, see Daytons delivering the goods and ask the motorists who are already enjoying Dayton performance.

Avail yourself of Dayton quality and Hicks modern merchandising—which means money-saving prices on highest grade tires.

than ever, with a whole new stock of things to do to entertain you. Assisted by Miss Mary Holdredge, they furnish a whole afternoon of laughs, with a few sighs cast in. These boys can make music on anything but the garden hose, and if you'd take all their instruments (and they certainly have plenty of them) they would still have their excellent voices and an extensive repertoire of good entertainment.

Harold Bell Wright's story of the Ozark Hills is probably better known by more people than any other American novel. So Premier has brought this year a dramatization of this story to the platform, played by an excellent cast. The play has a distinct sentimental appeal to everyone. The fifth night marks one of the important features of this year's program.

The Golden Ensemble—no name could better suit the eight singers whose music carries the week's program to a lofty climax of artistic accomplishment on the last day. The "Gypsy Caravan" is a musical fantasy, featuring the songs of vagabond land. The lighting effects and clever costuming add much to the atmosphere of the program.

Have you ever tried to argue in your own mind the relative value of classic and jazz music? Do not let it worry you again—Old man Opera and Young Mr. Jazz settle the question conclusively in the last night's program.

Don't you adore surprises? The Golden Ensemble always has a surprise in store for you. But don't be surprised at any thrill you may get out of hearing Kelly and Swaney sing to you.

"A Peace Pageant," featuring a children's court of all the nations of the world will be the happy ending of the children's work for the week. All the children in town, whether they have a season ticket or not, are asked to come to the park each morning to work and play together. Miss Gladys Grantham will be assisted by Kathryn Atkinson, Clyde Baskin, Rosalee Baskin and Sue Griffin Webb in making Chautauqua week a grand one for the youngsters.

"In the histories of the white people, if the white men won a battle, it was called a 'battle'; if the Indians won, it was called 'massacre.'" Strongheart desired that that side of the Indian be known.

WALKER'S CREEK CHURCH AND COMMUNITY NEWS

ODELL JAMESON, Pastor

Rural Services

In the last issue of "The Farm and Ranch" we read an article written by Dr. J. M. Dawson, of Waco, on this subject: "How One Rural Church Gloriously Died." In the article he seemed to make a prophecy that the day of the rural church had passed, and he was telling them just how to die. Why not write an essay on "How to Live." Isn't it to the advantage of any community to have a good, live wide awake church to live today than it was ten or twenty years ago, and it may be true that certain rural churches should disband and go to the city churches, but we disagree when it comes to thinking that all rural churches must go, and must go to making preparation to that effect.

Just why are so many of our rural churches disbanding, or contemplating such? If it is it can be easily explained by the fact that the city church has something for them that they do not receive in the country church. That is, things are made so interesting for them that they will leave the hidden possibilities of the rural church for the realities of the city church. In town they may have better singing, but is there not much material still left in the country? In the city, one might see a beautiful church and beautiful surroundings yet through proper work, the same can be secured for the rural church. We contend that if the leaders of a community and the pastor, loves the church well enough to work, there will be no need of a receipt on how to die.

When we do away with the rural churches the city churches will suffer, as well as the communities where the churches passed away. We therefore plead for loyalty of every member of our church. Back your church up, love it, support it with your presence and money, for in it you have a friend.

We are not putting Walker's Creek church up as a model church by no means, but we are saying that if anyone believes that the day of the rural church has passed forever, and who are ready to make a suggestion as to how to do it, we will invite their attention to visit us on any Sunday and see our crowds and the work we are doing.

Deacons Entertained

Tuesday night, the pastor entertained the deacons and their wives, at the home of Uncle Jimmie Chamberlain. After the business meeting, a few social games were enjoyed and then refreshments were served. The pastor is proud of his fine group of deacons.

Baptist Convention

Last Tuesday week all the deacons, except Uncle Jimmie Chamberlain and the deacon's wives, all went to the called Baptist convention which met at Waco. Dinner was carried to Lovers' Leap, in Cameron Park, where others joined in the fine eats. Others from our community who went to the convention were: Mrs. Hawes and daughter, Frances and Mrs. Starrett Hickman.

A Summer Encampment

Some time ago, a committee composed of Bro. Hutcherson, Mr. Black, and the writer, was appointed to investigate the matter of a summer encampment. The committee went to work, and at a called meeting of the Associational B. Y. P. U. and S. S. Sunday afternoon, the report of the committee was made and after a round of discussion, was unanimously adopted. The same committee was appointed as a committee to appoint committees which will operate the organization and will recommend to the Encampment, when convened, officers of the Encampment.

Now what is it for our church to do? We ought to back up this new undertaking with all our might. Let us stand behind this new movement as we stand behind all the other causes of our work in Milam County. It will be held in August and will run from the 20th to the 25, five days. Watch the newspapers and advertisements for further announcements.

The B. Y. P. U.

Under the leadership of our new president, Miss Lois Mock, we are expecting great things. As all will remember, she was the first president our union had after the organization. She put it over then, and she will do it again. But she cannot unless the people of the church back her up. Already the union is beginning to grow in numbers and in spirit, and are hoping that it will accomplish much good in the future.

W. M. U. Study Course

At the time of this writing, a W. M.

S. study course is in session. This work is badly needed in our community and we hope much good will come from the work put in it. Several ladies are taking the manual.

Here and There

Friday night the B. Y. P. U. is going to Wayside Inn. It is hoped that a large crowd of our young people will attend this gathering.

Little Misses Catherine and Lois Delehanty of San Angelo are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Delehanty. They will spend the greater part of the summer with us.

Mrs. Mosley, who is well known in our community, was a visitor at our morning services. We believe she is living at San Antonio.

The following young people are away or are planning to go away soon to school: Misses Marietta Boyd and Anna May Dodson and Messrs. George Angell and Vance McLain. We are glad to have them go to school but miss them very much in our community.

Half of His Time Out of Office Says Wardlaw of Moody

Fort Worth, June 11.—In a statement given to the press today, Louis J. Wardlaw, candidate for the Democratic nomination for the governorship charges that since his election and up until May 15th of this year Moody has spent less than half of the working hours in his office. He also alleges that gross favoritism has been shown by the Highway Commission in expending money in the vicinity of Houston and Abilene the homes of Ross Sterling, chairman and W. R. Ely, member of the commission.

The statement in full follows: "To the Voters of Texas,"—In the campaign two years ago Dan Moody made certain specific promises to you concerning his proposed acts if elected. I charge that the conduct of the administration has been but a train of broken promises and pledges.

I charge that in the face of his solemn pledge to avoid tax increases and to practice frugality the general appropriation bills under his administration have been $10,000,000 greater than ever before in the history of the State.

I charge that the chief executive has been neglectful of the enormous responsibility that has been his as your Governor and that he has not been in his office more than half the time during working hours prior to May 15th of this year.

I charge that the administration of the Highway Department by his agents and appointees has been one of favoritism for certain sections. I charge that the great majority of the counties of Texas have paid in hundreds of thousands of dollars more than they received back in the form of maintenance and new construction and that this money, in the main, has been expended in territory adjacent to Houston, the home city of R. A. Sterling, the chairman of the commission, and around Abilene, the home city of W. R. Ely a member.

Governor Moody in his campaign 2 years ago asserted from the stump that every administration should stand on the record it had made. The Governor, at that time, did not believe that the issue of a second term should enter the matter. I agreed then and I agree now, with the proposition as stated by him. If Governor Moody's administration will bear the scrutiny of the public; if he has faithfully complied with his campaign promises;

then he is entitled to a second term and I do not expect your support. If Governor Moody's administration will not bear scrutiny; if he has not kept his plighted word, then the statements he made from the stump two years ago applies to him and he should be retired to private life.

The Merchandise Mart of Chicago, Twice the Size of the World's Largest Business Building, to Cost $30,000,000.

GIGANTIC MERCHANDISE MART TO BE TWICE SIZE OF WORLD'S LARGEST BUSINESS BUILDING

New Project for Chicago's Great Central Market to Cost $30,000,000—Involves the Greatest Single Development of Air Rights in the West.

Foremost Manufacturers, Wholesalers and Importers
Will Be Housed Under One Roof in New Wholesale District; Inbound and Outbound Freight Station on Ground Floor of Building;
Club in Tower for Nation's Merchants.

Chicago, (Special).—Chicago is to have a gigantic Merchandise Mart housed in its own building, which will be twice the size of the largest business building in the world. This mammoth structure, two city blocks in length, 18 to 23 stories high, is planned for the service and convenience of merchandise buyers of the United States and to achieve for Chicago a still greater prestige as a Great Central Market. It was declared today. It will cost $30,000,000.
Construction will begin immediately.
The project will be the largest single development of air rights. The property of the new building except for caissons begins 23 feet above
"datum."

The big business of the country is now done mainly in concentrated market places, as evidenced by the Garment Center and Cotton Goods
Center in New York City, automobile rows in all leading cities, financial buildings, and the Furniture Mart in Chicago, where more than 700 furniture manufacturers show their products side by side, in the most modern manner and under ideal conditions.
Business men have learned that the nearer they are to the centers of these market places, the greater is their opportunity for volume and profit.

The establishment of the Merchandise Mart is a dramatic development in the program to make Chicago the Great Central Market, a movement which the Chicago Association of Commerce started a number of years ago and a goal toward which it has been devoting its energies continuously ever since, under the leadership of its Foreign and Domestic Commerce committee.

Located on River Front.

This great Mart, which will house
sales quarters and merchandise displays of several hundred of the country's foremost manufacturers, whole-salers and importers, will be located in the rapidly developing new river district, and will occupy a distinctly conspicuous position just across the river from Wacker Drive at Wells street, where the southern facade of the structure will be visible for blocks. The site was formerly that of the Chicago and North Western Railway Company's passenger station. The building will extend 724 feet on Kin-zie street, 577 feet on the river front and 324 feet on Wells street, with a diagonal frontage facing Orleans and Franklin streets. It will be set back from the river about 80 feet to accommodate a broad upper level drive extending from Wells to Franklin. The main entrance of the building will face the river and the drive.

The Merchandise Mart will have a total floor space of about 4,000,000 square feet as compared with slightly less than 2,000,000 square feet,
which is the floor area of the Furniture Mart, the next largest building.
Each of the eighteen main floors will have an area of more than 200,000 square feet.

Within the walls of this huge edifice the retail merchants of the United States, Canada and foreign countries will be able to see, under one roof, hundreds of lines of the world's best merchandise. The manufacturers' exhibits will include textiles, ready-to-wear, toys, lace, gloves,
corsets, millinery, silverware, glass,
rugs, hat goods, hosiery, shoes, men's wear, fancy goods, sport goods, art and antiques, jewelry, trunks, toilet articles, house furnishings, office equipment and scores of other merchandise displays

Ten Largest Business Buildings in the World

Comparison of the cubage of the largest buildings in the world shows
the Merchandise Mart, to be erected in Chicago, will be more than twice the size of the largest business building ever constructed. Here are the figures in cubic feet:

1. The Merchandise Mart, 53,000,000.
2. Chicago Furniture Mart, 25,370,000.
3. Equitable Building, New York City, 24,000,000.
4. General Motors, Detroit, 20,411,000.
5. Union Trust, Cleveland, 20,000,000.
6. Railway Exchange, St. Louis, 18,898,000.
7. Illinois Merchants' Bank, Chicago, 17,850,000.
8. Continental & Commercial Bank, Chicago, 13,200,000.
9. Woolworth Building, New York City, 13,200,000.
10. Straus Building, Chicago, 10,000,000.

Bird's-eye View of Chicago's New Business District Carrying Out the City
Beautiful Theme in Which the Merchandise Mart Will Be a Dominant Factor

Among the largest tenants will be the wholesale and manufacturing sales departments of Marshall Field & Company.

Time Saver for Merchants.
Every possible facility will be provided for the comfort and convenience of the retail merchant, who under one roof will be able to see hundreds of lines, thus saving time and money by doing in a few hours what ordinarily would take him days to accomplish.

On all floors of the Mart will be great corridors, with all the appearance of boulevards, more than 650 feet in length, on either side of which will be the shops displaying their varied lines—veritable "business streets."
These great corridors will be impres-sively treated architecturally and with the large space available it will be possible to house the selling activities and warehousing of many allied concerns on one floor, thus attaining the advantages of concentrated groupings.

The facilities for handling merchandise within the building will embody the best and most modern achievements of engineering science, including fast elevators, freight conveyors

of both the gravity and endless chain type and quick horizontal distribution
on every floor.

Probably no building in the world will have such facilities for receiving and shipping merchandise as the new Merchandise Mart. The entire ground level below the street floor will be a modern freight station. Private tracks for incoming carload freight will extend under the center of the building.
The Chicago and North Western Railway will operate an inbound freight station for less than carload lots, as well as an outbound station, which will connect with all other roads through its new Proviso yards. The merchandise as it comes into this big freight station will be loaded into high-speed conveyors and transported immediately to the exact floor and aisle of the merchant for whom it is intended.

Connection will be made with the Illinois Tunnel Company's system of freight transportation, which has more than sixty miles of tracks beneath
the streets and buildings of the city,
reaching all other railroad terminals.
A river dock for vessels will connect with the south freight elevators of the building.

Club Planned for Tower.

One of the interesting features
planned for the Mart will be a Merchants' Club in the tower of the building, with lounging rooms, reading and smoking rooms, where the retailer may relax and meet his friends. The Mart will provide the retailer with everything but a place to sleep. He can go direct from the train to the Mart with his baggage. Here his hotel reservations will be taken care of,
his baggage transported to his hotel
and placed in his room. Restaurants, lunch rooms and grills in the Mart will further economize his time. He will have the facilities of a barber shop, and a branch postoffice, telegraph office and public stenographers will afford him the opportunity to handle his correspondence without leaving the building. One of the biggest telephone exchanges in the world will be installed in the Mart.

Many other unique features are being considered for the Mart, including an Assembly Hall, where trade meetings, business conferences and fashion

shows may be held from time to time.
As the plans are worked out, many other features may be decided upon.

Within recent years Chicago's central business district has been developing northward across the Chicago river. East of State street, along north Michigan avenue, Cass, Rush and other streets, this development
has reached impressive proportions, evidenced by more than twenty large buildings. To the west of State street, a comparable development is underway. The site of the new Merchandise Mart is in the direct path of this new northward movement.

In the new river district where the Merchandise Mart is to be located,
many great buildings have been erected, and others soon will be begun.
The Builders' Building, the Engineers'
Building, the Chicago Evening Post Building, have been completed opposite the new Mart on Wacker Drive.
The new Chicago Daily News Building and the great new opera house of the Chicago Civic Opera Company are being constructed on the river
three blocks south.

WHAT WE THINK

By FRANK DIXON

They say fat people do not live to be very old. That suits us, we expect to have a better time in the next world anyway.

Little bank roll, ere we part
We will press you to our heart,
We've worked hard and long for you
We've been faithful, you've been true.
But vacation time draws nigh
Soon 'twill be a sad goodbye,
Back from our selected spot,
We'll return but you will not.

A man is but a worm out of the dust—he comes, wiggles about awhile and finally some chicken gets him.

Better cultivate a happy disposition. You will get along better on earth and there is no place reserved in heaven for a grouch.

We hope the hotel inspection law is not doing away with the hotel pillow. It is so small now you can hardly keep it out of your ear.

A neighbor has a flock of geese that keeps everyone reminded of politicians—they are always screaming, but can never do anything but eat. There is one advantage in favor of the geese, you can kill them.

One thing can be said of the golden streets above, they will not be decorated with tobacco juice.

It is a good thing the weather is different every day, not many people would know what to talk about if it were not for that.

When a man begins by saying, "I am going to be frank with you," you may know you are going to hear something disagreeable.

Political parties are not run by statesmen and it is only once in a while that a real statesman is elected to office and just as soon as he is discovered, he is fired at the first opportunity.

More yelling about getting out all the voters. Why worry? Very few know what they are voting about, now why get out a lot more to vote who are not interested. Most voting is guesswork anyway. We'll bet a hat that most voters don't know a platform from a hitching post and care less.

There was a time when you could catch fish with an ordinary fish worm but nowadays fish are so particular that they won't bite unless the bait is seasoned with asafetida.

Rats have one advantage over man. They always have a rat hole to crawl into.

After looking over a great many old men, I conclude that the mothers of the present generation are doing a better job than in the past.

Solomon had a thousand wives. The dear creatures were more submissive then, for it is unsafe to tackle one now.

If some party will build a platform of concrete we are going to get on, but we are afraid of plank platforms. Most of the planks are old and rotten and won't hold nails. A reinforced concrete platform for us.

As soon as a man has a little prosperity his wife loses faith in him and is ready to apply for a divorce or does she want his money?

Old folks are so inconsistent it is no wonder young folks pay no attention to them.

As long as people lie about you, you are safe, but if they begin to tell the truth you are lost.

If there is anything we delight to boast about it is the fact that we have a farm that will grow the biggest and greatest assortment of weeds in this county. We have known cockle burrs to sprout and grow and produce seed in 15 minutes before frost. Pig weed grows so large in 48 hours that a man can sit in the shade. Nature always produces more weeds than anything else so you must know that most of us are weeds.

H. C. Keith Heads All Frigidaire Sales Zones In America

Selected from the entire Frigidaire sales organization in the United States and Canada for outstanding sales achievement during April, H. C. Keith of this city, has had his name inscribed upon the Frigidaire national honor roll and is receiving congratulations of Frigidaire Corporation executives. He is ranked among the leading Frigidaire salesmen for April. In attaining this distinction the local man won out, not only over fellow salesmen in this city, but in the entire nation. This achievement puts him in line for membership in the Frigidaire Quota Club, members of which receive handsome cash prizes each year.

"Permit me to extend my personal congratulations and to express my personal appreciation for the splendid record you have achieved," E. G. Biechler, president and general manager, says in a message to the local prize winner. "Your record is one of which you may well be proud."

Two-Minute Sermons

By REV. GEO. HENRY
Absolute Justice

We do not mean to teach that God is not merciful, but that he will judge impartially as between man and man. We may not all have the same chance in life, but we all have some chance. If your opportunity for service and your ability to serve is greater than mine your responsibility is proportionately greater. I shall be called to account for the possibilities of life in relation to my mental and physical strength. The giant and the pigmy may each do his duty though they may not be able to perform the same task. Don't measure another man by the standard you set for yourself. Leave your judgment to Him who knows the secrets of all hearts, the things that are hidden from the eyes of men; who will take into account the accident of birth, the blight of heredity, and the curse of environment.

PIANO

We have in Cameron a high grade standard make piano that has never been sold. This piano is only slightly worn, looks like new, can make a wonderful price on this instrument rather than return it to Waco. Write us at once for prices and where you can see the piano.

Household Notes

The "Eyes" have it. Among the most popular of our vegetables and fruits are the potato and the pineapple. Both are blessed with eyes and both have "it". In this case "it" may be defined as the faculty of making delicious combinations with other foods. It may be due to its superabundance of eyes, but the pineapple will combine with many more foods than will the potato with its relatively few. Pineapple can be used with meats of all kinds, either in rings as garnishes or crushed and mixed with the dressing. In desserts of all kinds, frozen, cold, hot—pineapple is ideal. You all know how it shines in salads. And of course in cocktails and summer beverages it is delicious. Cakes and hot breads are improved by the addition of crushed pineapple and naturally pastry and pineapple are lightsome friends.

You don't always get hot stuff from volcanic countries. Hawaii, for instance, exports a minimum of lava, hot or cold, but a maximum of pineapples which combine beautifully in many hot and cold dishes. Put a can of sliced or crushed pineapple in the ice box and you'll find the contents delicious and most refreshing just as they come out. Eat the fruit and keep the juice to give an individual tang to any of a number of delicious cold drinks such as: Nectarine mulled punch. Boil slowly together for one hour, two cups Hawaiian pineapple syrup from the can, one pint grape juice, one cup lemon juice three cups orange juice, three two-inch pieces stick cinnamon, six whole cloves and two cups sugar. Strain and bottle. When serving, dilute with tea infusion, plain or charged water. Juices from other fresh fruits may be added. A teaspoonful of crushed pineapple and minced Maraschino cherries added to each glass will make the punch even more enjoyable.

Among the points raised against prohibition in Grayson county is that it interferes with the religious tenets of orthodox Jews, who are required by the Talmud to drink wine on certain days of the week. It is the first time that this objection has been raised for the action by courts. Evidently the anties in Grayson county are under the impression that when prohibition goes into effect in that county that it will prohibit.
